[Addressed to the (Quaker) Friends
Bloomingdale Retreat in Dublin, Ireland.]

[Announces the birth of his daughter, and that he rented a new cottage in Cape May, NJ, as the city is "too warm."]

[Also included is a response to Henry Chapman, Jr., from Alfred Miller(?), the registrar of the retreat, regretfully informing him that his cousin, Samuel Hudson, passed away peacefully on August 28th, 1904.]

My dear Cousin.

    You will be pleased to learn that we have a dear little daughter, born to us on the 22nd of last month.

Helmi and the baby are progressing nicely.

I rented a new cottage at Cape May, New Jersey as it would have been too warm in the City and they are very comfortable at the Sea Side.

Father went there today to see his grand daughter for the first time Hudson and his family are in Switzerland at the house of ~~Berthas~~ Sister on Lake Geneva.

I was so much pleased that my wife met thee for we had so often spoken of thee to her. Needless to add that she was delighted to make thy acquaintance and I know would appreciate greatly a letter from thee. How art thou?

We will be glad to hear.

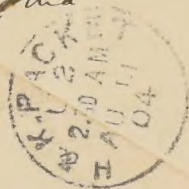

Aunt Hannah Arnett is about as usual. 87 now she attends Meeting and is very happy.

Father is well and often speaks of wishing to visit Ireland once more - but I fear it would make him feel too sad - all his dear ones are passed beyond.

With love from us all

I am thy affectionate
Cousin
Henry Chapman Jr.
